As Dark Mofo ramps up for its third and final week, here's our guide for what not to miss across the festival.

Festival favourites

A FOREST

Approach A Forest and be handed a set of earplugs to wear as you enter the atrium. Why? You'll have to go inside to find out.

A collection of art, noise, performance and virtual reality.

- WHERE: 79 Melville Street
- WHEN: Wednesday 19 - Sunday 23 June, 5pm - 10pm with entry on the hour
- PRICE: Tickets \$20

NIGHT MASS

Artists from around the world have descended on Hobart for Dark Mofo's multi-venue madness that is Night Mass.

This weekend's sold-out line-up includes Teto Preto, BADSISTA, Cashu, Empress Of, and Junglepussy.

- WHERE: Corner of Murray and Liverpool Streets on Friday 21 + Saturday 22 June
- WHEN: 10pm - late
- PRICE: Both nights are sold out, however, there may be limited tickets available at the door for $95 (subject to capacity)

NUDE SOLSTICE SWIM

📷 More than 1000 festival-goers will take the plunge into the cold waters of the River Derwent for the Nude Solstice Swim on June 22. Picture: Dark Mofo

Take a dip in the Derwent River to welcome the sun again after the longest night of the year.

Registration for participating in the swim have closed and over 1000 people are expected to take place in this year's swim.

- WHERE: Long Beach, Sandy Bay
- WHEN: Saturday 22 June, 7.42am

Free attractions

DARK PATH

📍 I'll see you in the trees on Dark Path by Angelo Badalamenti + David Lynch. Picture: Dark Mofo

If you are going to do one thing at Dark Mofo this weekend - make it Dark Path.

The 4 kilometre trail of installations, featuring works by Julie Gough, Chris Henschke and Tony Oursler, winds from the Regatta Grounds past the old Beaumaris Zoo to finish at the Royal Botanical Gardens lit up in red.

Wear layers and bring a torch because sections of the path are uneven and unlit.

- WHERE: The Regatta Grounds, Queens Domain, Beaumaris Zoo site and the Royal Botanical Gardens
- WHEN: Wednesday 19 - Sunday 23 June, 5pm - 10pm

BURNING OF THE OGOH-OGOHO

Dark Mofo's annual ritual of burning of an Ogoh-Ogoh will take place on the last day of the festival.

Festival-goers have from Wednesday until Sunday to write down their fears and add them to the Ogoh-Ogoh, which takes the shape of an endangered Tasmanian species - the swift parrot, at the Goods Shed at Macquarie Point.

The Ogoh-Ogoh will be paraded from Parliament Lawns to Macquarie Point to be burned and purged of the fears it contains.

- WHERE: Parliament Lawns to Macquarie Point
- WHEN: Sunday 23 June, 5pm - 6pm

ADP CONTAINER

Peer inside to see different perspectives of a miniature wonderland.

An outdoor installation in Hobart's city centre.

- WHERE: Town Hall, corner of Elizabeth and Macquarie Streets
- WHEN: Anytime

Eat and drink

We have answered the most important question: where you can get something to eat or drink to warm you up on these cold winter nights.

THE WINTER FEAST

A night out during Dark Mofo would not be complete without a stop at the Winter Feast.

Take your pick of of delicious treats from more than 70 stalls boasting different cuisines. A list of stallholders can be found here.

- WHERE: Princes Wharf 1, Castray Esplanade
- WHEN: Wednesday 19 + Thursday 20 June from 4pm - 10pm, Friday 21 + Saturday 22 June from 4pm - 11pm, Sunday 23 June from 4pm - 10pm
- PRICE: Tickets \$20, free entry for under 16s, after 8pm and all night on Sunday 23 June.

HENDRICK'S CONSERVATORY BAR

Take a rest stop in the Hendrick's Conservatory Bar, located in the Royal Botanical Gardens, during your walk along Dark Path.

Grab a hot gin punch as you enjoy the candle-lit conservatory before heading back onto the path.

Not a fan of gin? The bar is well stocked with other Tasmanian favourites and whisky lovers can head down the path to the Talisker Whisky Bar, located at the old Beaumaris zoo site.

IN THE HANGING GARDEN

Make sure to check out DarkLab's newly opened and entertainment precinct.

The new hub encompasses the Odeon Theatre, gig venue Altar, a beer garden with a number of tempting food trucks and a 24-hour cafe Pilgrim's Progress.

The precinct will remain open permanently after its launch at the start of the festival with a nightclub, High Altar, scheduled to open on the second floor in September.

- WHERE: 112 Murray Street
- WHEN: Anytime
